

Search articles

Browse articles

By country

 ▼

By Red varietal

 ▼

By White varietal

 ▼

By topic

 ▼

Latest articles

18th Jun 2011

Wine of the week

2007 Passopisciaro, IGT Sicilia (£29.99, 14%, Corney & Barrow)

If your impression of Sicily is of a sweltering island making chunky reds, cheap, New World-style whites and Marsala, you haven't discovered the Nerello Mascalese grape from Mount Etna yet. Andrea Franchetti's Burgundian-style red, sourced from vines as old as 120 years, is remarkable: perfumed and elegant, with notes of red cherry and wild strawberry, savoury tannins, refreshing acidity and impressive length and complexity.

93 points

Related topics: Wine of the Week, Italy, Other Reds