Sancaba 2013 Pinot Nero

San Casciano Dei Bagni, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2016 - 2020

Sancaba's 2013 Pinot Noir is super-expressive and bold to the core. Intensely sweet and perfumed, the 2013 offers notable depth in an overt, forward style that will please readers who like overt wines. Sweet red cherries, plums, spices, mint and hard candy are all nicely delineated. Drink this juicy, voluptuous Pinot over the next few years. This is a gorgeous debut from Sancaba.

Sancaba

Sancaba is a new Pinot Noir project from Andrea Franchetti of Tenuta di Trinoro and Passopisciaro fame. The high altitude vineyards sit at 650 meters above sea level at San Casciano dei Bagni, which lies in the very south of Tuscany, not too far from the borders with Umbria and Lazio.
